London, 8th—House of Commons has voted by 277 to 136 the Bill for increasing the navy.

Berlin, 8th—The coal miners in Westphalia have struck for higher wages. The strike is general and the miners are so exasperated at the refusal of their demands by the mine-owners that riots are feared and troops have been sent to prevent the apprehended riots.

THE IRISH LEADER AGAIN IN THE WITNESS BOX.

Paris, 7th—Twenty five thousand people visited the Exhibition yesterday. During the opening ceremony three men cried "Vive Boulanger!" and were at once arrested by the police. The fetes at night on the opening day were noted for the general good order that prevailed.

Berlin, 7th—The Cross Gazette says that the North American Commissioners at the Samoa Conference have received orders from Washington to demand the neutrality of the islands, that the administration of Samoan affairs be left to the Samoese, and to insist on the rights of the United States to have a coaling station at Pangopago. In spite, says the Cross, of these demands by the United States, it is believed that they are merely put forward to prevent the other powers exerting their influence against United States interests.

London, 8th—The Parnell-Times inquiry was resumed yesterday. Parnell, in examination, said he wished to correct part of his previous evidence as to what he had said in the House of Commons in reference to the non-existence of secret societies in Ireland. On referring to the reports of his speech in the House, he found that his observations were as regards Ribbonism and not conspiracies in general. Consequently he had not rightly expressed the facts, as at that time Ribbonism, as a patriotic Irish society did not, in fact, exist in Ireland. As regards his speeches in America, as published in the Irish World, he would not accept them as true. Mr Ford gave a twist to his (Parnell's) speeches to suit the taste of his readers. He had never before considered it necessary to make this statement. Referring again to secret societies, he added that he considered that any person who became a member of the Land League, while he was also a member of the Clan-na-Gael Association, an Irish revolutionary body, did so to injure the politics of the League.

ENORMOUS DAMAGE.

Valparaiso, 9th—There was a terrible gale here last night, though it did not last long. Great losses reported. The English barque Temby Castle dragged and smashed into the Siro, sending her to the bottom. All the crew of the latter were saved, except the cook, who was swept away. The Temby Castle was badly injured. The Siro and her coal cargo were insured for 17,000 dollars. The barque Chittagaug collided with other craft and suffered damage, losing one of her crew. Eight vessels snapped or dragged their cables and were seriously damaged. Several lighters full of coal sank, and numerous small craft were dashed to bits. Four squares of the Breakwater were washed away, and the earthworks of the railways also. The Aconcagua's sailing has been postponed till next Tuesday.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The Police.

The police force is now installed in a new building with all the necessary space and conditions for the better performance of the duties of that important department. The fire-brigade is lodged in the same building, with its engines and train. Six of the new police courts have been finished, two more will be ready in the next two months, and the other twenty will be completed before the end of the year.

An anthropometric office, to fix the identity of offenders and secure a more reliable guide to discovery, has been started. But few cities of Europe can boast this innovation in the police force.

The creation of criminal instruction courts has been followed by some necessary changes in police procedure, in order to harmonize with present legislation. These reforms have been carried into effect without any trouble.

Since the beginning of the year the two new police courts created last session are working.

The prizes and compensations that are being distributed among the police force are bearing excellent results, serving as a good incentive and exciting emulation among the men.

As a means of increasing the knowledge of the men and impressing on them the responsibility of their post, a police gazette has been started with success. Committees of superior officers have been appointed to inspect the purchase of articles, and this change has been followed by an economy of 70 o/o to 80 o/o in the expenditure of the department.

The police statistics show the efficiency of the force and the improvement made in the last few years. In 1887 62 per cent of offenders were caught; criminals seldom escape seizure. The average of seizures according to European figures is 54 o/o.

The actual organization of the police is the outcome of numerous and incongruous measures, a motley collection of decisions adopted according to circumstances. A code of general regulations, fixing the limit of jurisdiction, is imperiously needed. A bill in this respect will soon be submitted to the House.

Hygiene.

For the first time since it was created the Health Department has under its control all the health service of a national character. Thus the measures taken last year have been uniform and more decisive. Very happily the country was visited by no epidemic, in spite of the great number of immigrants, the appearance of cholera in the Andine provinces, and the spread of yellow fever in Brazil, whence infection came down to our ve..y port. During the dangerous season, and especially in moments of alarm, all the measures urged by science were immediately adopted to prevent the importation and spread of contagious diseases and prepare for any extraordinary emergency.

The Martin Garcia Lazaretto, which has been much improved, was of great service, being the only station of the kind, where thousands of passengers were put in quarantine before entering our ports. But the situation of the island is not favorable to a quarantine station, and the Health Board, with authority from the Home Minister, is searching for a better place on the sea coast to build a lazaretto.

The steamer, ordered in England, with all the appliances for sanitary service, is finished and will soon begin work.

The National Medical Officers, also provided by the Budget Law, are fulfilling their duties in the interim since the beginning of the year. The Department extends its action all over the country with more effect, and its sole management of national health service will insure more efficiency and more beneficial results.

Charity.

The "Sociedad de Beneficencia" has continued as in former years to deserve the trust of the government in the management of charitable institutions. The Society have not only managed with care and economy the large sums of money they receive from the National Treasury, but have also extended their field of operations by appealing to the sympathy of the public to help to improve the service of the several institutions. The orphanage has been enlarged and all the new buildings have been in service since May last year. During the year fifty-three girls entered the establishment and sixty left, two hundred and thirty four remaining in charge. In the other establishment—the Asylum of Orphans—fifty-three children entered, thirty left, and four hundred and eight remained in charge. According to the Committee of Education, the school-examinations at both establishments gave good results.

The Rivadavia Hospital is now in its new precincts. The building, though new and large, needs some important changes to meet the purposes of the hospital. The Sociedad de Beneficencia is preparing the plans and estimates for these new works. During the year 1,221 sick females entered this hospital, 1024 left, 163 died, and 199 remained under treatment.

The Foundlings' Institute has 1856 children. During the year 843 entered and 753 left. The Institute has been enlarged and its hygienic condition much improved.

The Female lunatic asylum has been very much improved, but of all the charitable establishments is the one that needs most reform, in extension and treatment. There are at present in this asylum 545 patients; last year two hundred entered and 173 left.

The Children's hospital and "Consultorio Oftalmologico" are not entirely dependent on the treasury, but they enjoy a heavy subvention and lend great services to the poor classes.

In accordance with the views of the Sociedad de Beneficencia, the Executive will submit to you larger estimates and new works to extend and keep up these establishments.

The Maritime Prefectura

The Prefectura has under its management eighty sub-prefectures, "ayudantias," "receptorias," shipping stations, etc. Its services met with no difficulty last year, and the inundations caused by the heavy and frequent rains on several parts of the coast gave it an opportunity of fulfilling one of the principal objects of its mission. Its timely help on the occasion prevented, no doubt, many accidents.

The number of vessels that entered and left this port last year amounted to 95,645 and their tonnage to 8,480,044, carrying 265,085 passengers; this shows an excess over the previous year 1887 of 10,740 vessels, 663,206 tons, and 40,656 passengers. The statistics of other ports of the republic will be found in the report of that department.

The funds voted last year have enabled the Executive to supply the Prefectura with elements it lacked, in the shape of vessels for service in port; but there are still many dificiencies, and it is necessary that this deparment be provided with more elements to perform maritime and fluvial police service.

Lands and Colonies

The increased value of public lands and their general superintendence call for an immediate reform in our legislation. The laws at present in force were made when all means were deemed necessary to facilitate the possession of land. Furthermore, these laws are incongruous, obey no fixed plan, and are of difficult application. Our actual legislation did not provide for the division of land to hand it over to the small farmer, the nerve of rich countries; land in general has been seized by large landed proprietors.

The most practical system, that observed in the United States, in France and in England, is to measure, divide, and sell the land in regular lots to the 'bona fide' colonist, without intermediate agents, and facilitate payment by granting bills at long dates.

To arrive at such results, we must reorganize the Land and Colonies Department, supply it with all the elements to measure and divide lands, to draw up maps, and be able to give interested parties all the necessary information as to position, quality, and suitability of lands.

In fact our whole system of land legislation must be reformed, and the Executive is drawing up a land biil to submit to your consideration. The extend of land sold up to date is about the same as stated in last year's report of the Home Minister, as, pending the execution of the reforms I have indicated and the fulfilment of the conditions of the numerous land concessions granted, made under guise of the liberality of the system, I have thought it expedient to limit as much as possible operations of this kind, viz. the sale and lease of lands, colonization, and working of timber concessions.

In accordance with law of 3rd November 1882, during the year 1888 seven sections, of a million hectares of land each have been measured in the Chubut territory. Two sections have already been approved, and the remainder are being studied.

In accordance with law of 7th October 1884, from July last year to date twenty seven land questions as to rights of settlement have been settled, embracing an aggregate of 2,150 kilometres of land in several territories. According to Art. 1st of same law, thirteen titles to property have been revalidated, embracing an area of 1600 kilometres square.

Lately, measures have been taken to carry out scrupulously the object of that land law, and the several territorial Governments have been notified to send to the Home Office all documents relating to land questions and claims. Very few of these claims are left pending.

In view of several laws passed last year rights have been granted to certain parties to receive the lands thereby conceded in purchase or as gifts. Such laws embrace 29 concessions, with an aggregate area of 105 leagues. As it has been decided that only excepting such cases where the law provides for a special locality that this area of land conceded be "located" in the 1st and 2nd Sections South of the Rio Negro, a surveyor has been sent thither to divide these lands and set apart these concessions: the same officer has also been ordered to measure and sub-divide one million hectares of land in fiscal property to carry out the law of 3rd Nov. 1882.

The contracts for colonizing land concessions in the hands of private parties are being carried out: the concessionaires have fulfilled their preliminary obligations in this respect. The surveys for the measurement and subdivision of the lands granted have been presented within the terms fixed by law. Up to the present twenty-seven such concessions in several territories have been approved.

With regard to concessions in the Chaco, Formosa and Rio Negro territories, the procedure has been regulated by decree of 23rd May last year, whereby their measurement is for account of the Government and the lands are handed to the concessionaires on the payment of the costs of measurement: the concessionaires must then proceed to carry out the conditions of their respective contracts.

All these surveys and measurements will be completed this year, and if these are correctly carried out, then the moment comes to exact from the concessionaires of these land and colonization grants compliance with the conditions that bind them to start agricultural families on their concessions, according to the terms of their respective contracts.

In view of the negative results of the attempts to start official colonies on the lines observed up to the present, the Government has not started a single new colony. The optional lots in existing colonies have been placed at the disposal of the Minister of Foreign Affairs, that, through the medium of the Immigration Department, they be distributed amongst immigrant farmers and their families.

Measures are being taken to make a thorough inspection of all official colonies, to see if the lots granted by the Government have been settled and turned to account by colonists, according to the terms of the law.

The Government extends its influence as much as possible to the National territories, regions far remote from the centres where population, wealth, and capital accumulate. There are territories with a fair number of inhabitants, gathered in a very short time, though scattered over such immense regions. They are all rich in stock, in land, in minerals, but far greater development they await the construction of railways, whether granted or proposed, to secure a maritime communication which the Government is determined shall be permanently secured for the Southern territories. Then these embryonic states will progress rapidly and attract men and money.

The authorities, created by laws, in the territories are all well established and work with regularity, although they have to struggle against many obstacles, especially the lack of elements and the onerous and slow means of communication. The budgets of all these territories are nearly the same as in the first year of their creation as such. Their requirements, however, have grown, and it is only reasonable that the funds to meet same should grow in proportion.

Before long, an engineer will be sent to every territory to report with the local Government on the public works of immediate necessity, special preference to be given to works tending to improve communications.

The report of the Home Minister will give you all details as to the area, population, industry commerce, and general condition of territories. But let me anticipate some information with regard to the free, unoccupied, and available lands in each territory. Although such a calculation within the desirable and approximative limits is difficult, owing to the absence of statistics and antecedents in this regard, yet we may state with relative certainty, calculating the figures under the mark, that the nation has at present the following available lands:—

Territories	Sq. kilometres
In Misiones	37,500
" Formosa	99,146
" Chaco	61,964
" Pampa	63,791
" Neuquen	74,184
" Rio Negro	190,358
" Chubut	239,531
" Santa Cruz	270,000
" Tierra Fuego	20,000
Total	1,056,474

Foreign Affairs

In our relations with foreign powers nothing has occurred to disturb or endanger peace. The harmony which exists on a broad and secure basis with the powers of America and Europe gathers fresh strength every day from the development of our commercial relations. I can assure you, therefore, that we have the greatest confidence in the situation from an international point of view; and at the same time I may say that it affords the highest satisfaction to watch the development of our credit and the growing influence of the Republic on the principal markets of the world. In regard to our relations with neighboring powers with whom we are at present arranging the question of limits, I beg to call your attention to the fact that the ratification of the boundary-treaty with Chile (1881) depends solely on the will of the legislative bodies of both countries. On this point, consequently, there can be no difficulty, since it is a question of the fulfilment of a solemn pact between the two countries. On the ratification of the treaty, a mixed boundary-commission will be appointed to draw the line of limits.

The cordial relations between the two governments are a guarantee that no difficulty will arise in the settlement of the question, and in any case the existing treaty has provided for any emergency.

On the 11th June of last year a protocol was drawn up and signed by the Minister for Foreign Affairs and the Minster Plenipotentiary of Bolivia, whereby the Chaco limits were agreed upon provisionally. The limit line according to this arrangement runs along the 22nd degree as far as the intersection by the River Pilcomayo. The territory to the north of this line belongs to Bolivia, while the southern portion remains under Argentine jurisdiction.

Unfortunately, the recent events in Bolivia brought the boundary negotiations to a stop, so that the final arrangements have not yet been arrived at. In the course of this session I trust you will definitely settle the question.

The boundary question with Brazil has undergone no change and remains in the same stage of good understanding as I announced to you in my last message. The disputed territory has been explored, and the respective commissions are engaged in drawing up a detailed map of their observations, with a view to meet and ultimately arrive at an agreement in Montevideo. The complicated character of the negotiations accounts for the length of time required to settle the question. The slight differences which have arisen between the two commissions are of no importance. The question is being discussed on a broad and amicable basis, and there is no danger of any international dispute.

In the report of the Foreign Office you will find a detailed statement of the work accomplished by our legations and consulates, and I would call your special attention to the reforms which I purpose making on this head. Our consular service has been placed on a footing of regularity by the Stamp Act and other measures adopted when I entered office. The increased emoluments of our consulates point to the development of our commercial relations.

The Argentine Government has been invited by the United States to attend the International American Congress which is to meet next October in Washington. The object of this conference is to deal with questions of commerce, navigation, monetary system, and other important subjects, and the Executive has consequently intimated its willingness to assist and has appointed Dr. Manuel Quintana, Dr. Roque Saenz-Peña, and Dr. Vicente G. Quesada as its plenipotentiaries. The Argentine Republic is keenly alive to the advisability of cultivating closer relations with the United States with a view to bring about a free interchange of products between the two countries. This is the only means of any efficacy to cultivate more friendly ties with the great republics on whose institutions ours are modelled.

The South American Congress on International Law, to which I referred in my last message, was opened on the 25th August 1888 and concluded its task on the 18th February ult. After 6 months' intelligent labor this assembly, comprising the plenipotentiaries of 7 nations of the Continent, has attained the end which the Argentine and Uruguayan Governments had in view when they launched the idea of forming this Congress. The results of their labor are contained in 8 pacts which will be shortly submitted to your approval. Agreements have been arrived at in regard to questions of Civil, Commercial and Penal Law, trade-marks, patents etc. The work accomplished by this Congress is of very high international importance, and I therefore call your most careful attention to the pacts alluded to.

I mutt not close this chapter without mentioning my official visit last February to the President of the Uruguayan Republic on the occasion of the closing of the South American Congress, over which act H. E. and I presided. This was the first time on record that the Chief magistrates of the two nations had met. I cannot refrain from alluding to the cordial and enthusiastic reception accorded to me, which shews in what high esteem the Argentine people is held by a sister-nation to whom we are bound by a community of origin and triumphs.

President Tajes will return this visit, on which occasion he will have an opportunity of appreciating the sympathy and esteem we have for the Uruguayan people.

The regulation and beneficial action of the law granting passages to intending immigrants have produced great results, and already a strong current of immigration has set in from the northern countries of Europe, which was your object when you sanctioned the law. The immigration last year would have exceeded 200,000 but for one obstacle. I allude to the want of steamers to carry these human loads to our shores. On this account over 30,000 intending immigrants were compelled to defer their voyage to the Plate. In spite of all difficulties, 180,993 immigrants landed last year, against 142,733 in 1887, which shews an increase of 38,207 in 12 months. In 1888 the monthly arrivals were 15,802; 502 per diem. These figures are truly astonishing, and lead us to expect that the population of the country will be doubled in a few years.

In the first four months of this year 96,300 immigrants landed on our shores, which is greatly in excess of the figure for the corresponding period of last year, and shews what we may expect before the year is out.

It is not necessary for me to dwell on the advantages which the country reaps from immigration.

Next October I shall have completed my third year of office, and I can assure you that this year will shew that our immigration figures have trebled since my first year of administration, that is taking for basis the figures for the last year of the preceding presidency. The country had not one home for Immigrants, and now eleven are being built in different parts of the Republic, in accordance with the law passed by you. We have yet to erect the Grand Immigrants' Hotel of the City, the plans of which will be shortly laid before you.

In conclusion I may say that at present 40 square leagues are being cut up into farm lots for immigrant families, and I may add that the greater part of the State lands will be handed over to colonists.

The Information Offices opened in 1887 are beginning to produce good results by spreading the fame of the Republic and arousing general interest in its immense resources. Last year 12,000 people applied to these offices for information in regard to the country. Over 100,000 letters were exchanged.

The Argentine Produce Museum which you created was officially opened on the 15th March ult. It contains complete collections of the principal produce of the country. This permanent exhibition is bound to rouse the interest of all competent people, as they will find therein an index to our immense resources. Furthermore, the Committee of Management of the Museum are continually sending samples abroad for exhibition. All the provinces and territories are represented in the Museum. I call your attention to the activity and zeal of the Committee of management.

War

The army of the Republic, true to its traditions of glory, loyalty and honour, continues the constant agent of civilization and invulnerable bulwark of constitutional principles. In the present happy days, an epoch of liberty and labour, the Argentine army's growth and progress harmonize with that of the nation; and while trade and industry are developing, the finances improving, and legislation and education progressing, the army is extending its intellectual powers in schools and academies, and increasing and reforming its material forces.

We must have, we are bound to have for all time, ample means for the security of our frontiers and the preservation of order at home; and in order that this double end, of vital importance, may be attained by the army, I have not failed to adopt, nor shall I ever fail to adopt, whatever measures may be necessary.

To this end, during the past year, sundry reforms have been effected in the administration of the army, amongst others the completion of the several barracks in the city, the opening of the Military Hospital; the enlarging of the Gunpowder Factory at Rio Cuarto, which is already doing good service, and above all, the reform of the plans of study and of the teaching staffs of the Military Schools. These establishments have to form our staffs of officers, attend constantly to them, and see that science and the experience of our own and other countries be brought to bear on their training.

The necessity of maintaining troops in the Chaco Territory has involved that of building barracks for them at the advanced posts they occupy; these barracks form the nuclei of towns, which serve as bases for further operations.

You were asked to vote money for this purpose last session, and when you see fit to do so the War Office will vigourously carry it out. A road is now being cut from the extreme end of the province of Salta to Port Resistencia on the Parana; and others will shortly be commenced to enable the river Bermejo to be used for communication by means of special steamers now being built in England.

Marine

All means in our power have been availed of to place the National Navy on a footing which will enable it always to respond promptly and efficiently to the necessities of the country and the high mission entrusted to it.

Cruises for training and instruction, scientific explorations of our coasts and rivers, and much hydrographic work have been effected, with the double object of schooling the officers and men and obtaining information and knowledge of great use to the general interests of the country. I must make special mention of the voyage of instruction of the corvette Argentina to the Pacific coast with pupils of the Naval School who have finished their studies. This voyage evoked, in all the ports of Chile and Peru which the ship visited, the most flattering demonstrations towards our navy, a further proof of the fraternal relations we maintain with both those republics.

The ironclad Admiral Brown has been despatched to Europe on a voyage of instruction and will be repaired while there.

The new Naval School building at Diamante will shortly be finished, and I hope that this establishment will give the results aimed at in moving it from the capital to that place.

The Law of October 1882 authorized the opening of a canal between the rivers Parana de las Palmas and the Lujan, which will not only shorten distances, but remove many obstacles to navigation in those rivers.

With the view of rendering this work complete another canal, to connect the Lujan with the Inner Roads opposite the city, has been commenced, thus providing the shortest and easiest route possible between the two points. The carrying out of this important work has been entrusted to the well-known engineer who made the surveys and drew the plans. His ability and the determination of the Government to push it on, justify the belief that the work will be well and quickly done.

AFFAIRS IN EUROPE.

ENGLAND'S GREATEST ORATOR.

THE NEW AMERICAN AMBASSADORS.

BRITISH TRADE IN 1888.

(By M. G. M.)

Antibes, April 5th

One of the greatest Englishmen of the 19th century has passed away in the person of John Bright. Few men have done more to advance England, or been more bitterly vituperated by the higher classes. Although 40 years have elapsed since Cobden and Bright fought and won the great battle of Free Trade, the feeling of rancour on the part of the landed aristocracy is undiminished; they can never forgive the leaders of the movement which secured cheap food for the masses. It is not easy to convey to people of the present generation a proper idea of the benefit which Bright's policy of Free Trade has done to Great Britain, yet I have looked in vain in the speeches of Lord Salisbury and his colleagues for any recognition of this great fact. The foreign commerce of the United Kingdom in 1840 was only 113 millions sterling or £4 per inhabitant; it amounted in 1888 to 620 millions or £17 per inhabitant. The wealth of the country was estimated by Porter in the former year at 4,100 millions; at present it is a little over 9000 millions sterling, having increased just 100 millions per annum. Without Free Trade we should have never seen such results, nor considered them possible in a little country like Great Britain. Without Bright it is a question whether we should ever have had Free Trade. All the ability and perseverance of Cobden would have been fruitless, but for the brilliant oratory and fervid patriotism of Bright, who rescued England from a system as baneful as that of King Bomba. All honor, therefore, to his name. What Simon de Montfort was for the Parliament, Bright was for the people of England, a foundation stone for future greatness.

Perhaps no tribute to his memory is more true or touching than Justin McCarthy's short speech in the name of Mr. Parnell and the people of Ireland. He said "we can only remember the sympathy and friendship that he lavished on the Irish people in their darkest hour, when Ireland had few friends in the House of Commons." With the exception of Fox he was the first English statesman who had a kind word for the sister kingdom. He spoke in accents of thunder for the poor Irish peasant, and in a memorable speech declared that "if Ireland could be towed westward, 2,000 miles into the Atlantic, she would be a happy and prosperous nation."

The history of statesmen is full of reverses and contradictions. Perhaps the saddest instance of this is Bright's secession from the Home Rule programme as brought forward by his colleague, Gladstone. This has never been explained. Some ascribe it to a feeling of offended vanity, because Gladstone sprang his project on Parliament, consulting neither Bright nor Chamberlain. As to the latter it matters nothing, for he is utterly contemptible; but Bright was the soul of honor. Others say that his intellect had been breaking for some years, and that much allowance must be made on that account. Others believe that he had neither yielded to pique against Gladstone, nor lost any of his mental power, but really believed Home Rule in 1887 would be fatal, although he made no objection to Mr. Butt's bill in 1877. I cannot pretend to reconcile his late opinions with those he held ten years ago. Whatever the cause of his defection, he became as violent against Ireland in the last three years as the most zealous Orangeman, and did more harm to Gladstone than 500 Chamberlains could have done. His death, in all likelihood, will be a change of two votes on the Home Rule division, as Birmingham is pretty certain to return a Home-Ruler. Nothing but personal regard for Bright, after 30 years sitting for that constituency, could have prevented his electors from turning him out. Peace be to his ashes. In the summer-noon of his career he had no equal, no competitor

Except the mission to London most of the best diplomatic posts distributed by President Harrison have fallen to journalists. The editor of the Tribune goes to Paris, that of the N. American Review to St. Petersburg, that of the Cincinnati Gazette to Berlin. This is perhaps as it should be. Journalists are usually educated men, and men of ability, and hence they ought to do well as diplomatists. I cannot say from experience whether they do, as I have never met a case in point. At all events Gen. Harrison is trying the experiment, and happily the men selected for these weighty posts have an honorable record. Mr. Whitelaw Reid, who goes to Paris, has made the Tribune one of the foremost papers in the New World, a powerful advocate of Protection, which is now unfortunately the dominant policy, and the chief organ of the Republican party. Like many other Americans he does not know a word of French, but he can make up in hospitality for this short-coming, since he possesses a large private fortune, through his wife, who was a rich heiress. Mr. Thorndyke Rice, who goes to Russia, has for many years been at the head of the foremost literary review in the U. States, and under his guidance the N. American has become as distinguished as the Revue des Deux Mondes was in Europe in its palmy days. These men, it cannot be doubted, are likely to impress European Courts favorably, the more so as men of letters are rarely found in the list of diplomatists. Whatever faults the American system may have it is remarkable for making literary men ambassadors. In England we have only one case on record, that of Addison, who was envoy to Holland, but in one short century the American envoys to Europe can count Washington Irving, Bayard, Taylor, Motley, Lowell and many others, who had risen to eminence by their writings.

Among the new ministers to Spanish America are two Irishmen, Mr. Ryan to Mexico and Mr. Egan to Chile, the first an American born, the second ex-secretary of the Land League. The latter appointment has given great offence in England, as showing that the Republican administration will be very much influenced by the sentiment of the Irish people in the States. It is, nevertheless, very natural, seeing that the Irish constitute one of the principle elements in the common wealth. If Irishmen met with the same hospitality under the regime of Downing St., it would be a wiser and better policy. No Irishman has any chance of post or preferment under the British Government, unless he be a renegade or an Orangeman. At first it was rumoured that Mr. Egan was to go to Buenos Aires, but perhaps he will be better pleased at Santiago, where he will take precedence as the head of the Corps Diplomatique, the American being the only Envoy Extraordinary.

The new envoy to England is the son of the late President Lincoln, whose appointment meets with a chorus of applause from the London press. It was said at first that Mr. Blaine would have the post in preference to that of Prime Minister, but he would hardly be acceptable to the British Court, being strongly biased in favour of Ireland, and as matters now stand a man friendly disposed to Ireland is not quite acceptable in England. All bitterness connected with the Sackville incident has now passed off, and Mr. Lincoln will meet with a cordial welcome from all classes of Englishmen.

There are some matters of importance likely to call for delicate handling from our new Ambassadors. The Canadian Fisheries is still an open question that ought to be settled as soon as possible, without precipitation. American relations with Germany and France are a little strained by the Samoa dispute and the Panama Canal. As regards South America, I cannot but think that it is a great misfortune that the whole American continent is not one republic. This, indeed, seems impossible in a political sense, but it is quite possible in a fiscal one. Americans have achieved such wonderful results that I hope some day to see an American Zollverein, by which all merchandise can pass free from Patagonia to Hudson's Bay, just as at present from New Orleans to Boston. The first step in this direction will be to renew the Free Trade treaty between the United States and Canada, which was unhappily broken off in 1862. A similar measure with Mexico is inevitable. Now is there any reason why it should not embrace the whole continent? You have only to arrange with the Washington Cabinet to charge the same duties at Buenos Ayres, Montevideo, Valparaiso and Rio Janeiro as at New York, Boston etc. Voila tout! The results would be of such transcendental importance that I hope the new American envoys will study the matter and advocate it.

Detailed returns are published of last year's trade. The total shows an increase of 12 millions sterling in exports over 1887 and 25 millions in imports, the latter being, in my opinion, the more favorable circumstance, for the prosperity of a country may always be measured by its imports. If these decline, be assured there is "something rotten in the state of Denmark"; if they increase, it is the best barometer of a rising nation. Why it is so I cannot say, but the fact remains.

British exports to foreign countries rose more than 3 millions, say 2 per cent, in spite of a decline of 2 millions in our shipments to Spain and Italy, the principal increase being in our dealings with South America. But it is in our exports to the British Colonies that trade has risen most of all, the increase over 1887 being 9 millions, or 3 times more than the aggregate with foreign nations. The exports to the colonies were:

	£	£
Australia	19,700,000	25,400,000
India	33,100,000	35,800,000
Canada	8,100,000	7,500,000
Other colonies	14,200,000	15,200,000
Total	75,100,000	83,900,000

The only falling-off is in the case of Canada, which puts heavy duties on British goods and seems more disposed to trade with the U. States. Our exports to Australia rose 28 per cent, which is very remarkable.

Respecting the import trade we find the items thus:

	1887.	1888.
	£	£
Colonies	83,300,000	87,000,000
U. States	82,900,000	79,300,000
Other countries	195,300,000	220,400,000
Total	362,000,000	386,700,000

Our imports from the U. States declined 3 millions, and those from the Colonies increased in the like amount. The improvement in trade is in fact largely due to our growing relations with the Colonies. The sum total, between imports and exports, of our dealings with the Colonies in 1888 was 171 millions sterling, against 159 millions the previous year. In a word, our actual trade with them is almost double what the whole foreign and colonial trade of Great Britain was in the year 1840. As I said above, the only unpromising feature is Canada, and the sooner she joins the U. States the better, as it would immensely facilitate trade on all sides. Portland, in the State of Maine, is the only real seaport of Canada for six months in the year. Nature meant that it should be so, and it is useless to keep up a "simulacrum" of a republic in Canada, when all her interests clearly point to absorption or coalescence with the great American people.

LATEST FROM MONTEVIDEO.

[EXTRAORDINARY REVIVAL.

The oldest inhabitants of the Mount say that they never recollect such a stir, business movement, and general progress as at present going on. Montevideo seems to be growing out of its boots. One can't walk the street with the andamios, ladders, beams and huge blocks of granite that interrupt the side-walks. Building is going on even in the remotest street. On Sunday morning I went out in the tram to the Pocitos with Mr. Thomas Gahan, estanciero of Navarro. We were both astonished at the improved appearance of the little village, and he liked the place so much that had there been a land broker about he would have bought a building site, or perhaps the "Cottage", which is now shut up, but we could find no one about to give us any information save a few "Dolce Napolis" who laughed at us when we asked them a question.

The new offices of the Obras Publicas are to be inaugurated in a few days, and many parties from Buenos Ayres are invited to the ceremony. The building was formerly occupied by the Uruguay Club, which is the grand Progreso Club of Montevideo. The whole of the first floor forms the grand hall for the bank, for this company may now in truth be called a bank, doing a far better banking business than some of the oldest banks in the Mount. Upstairs are the offices of the president, directors, etc. The property belongs to the company, it is one of the most valuable, and worth more than double what it cost the Obras Company.

On Sunday night I visited the Uruguay Club with Mr. E. Casey and Mr. Cadmus. This fashionable club almost eclipses our Progreso. It occupies a magnificent building in the Plaza Matriz. The house must have cost a very large amount it is so splendidly furnished. It belongs to Sr. Marini, but I could not find out the rent. I met Mr. Pineyrua and other friends there, all playing billiards, an extraordinary game called "Cazin". The great conversation in the club that night of course turned on the Reus 'Barrio' auction that day. Mr. Pineyrua made me a straight offer for the 24 houses I had bought with Mr. Thomas Gahan, but as my partner had gone to the theatre, I could not accept it.

In the neighbourhood of this club and in the Calle 25 de Mayo are the most gorgeous jeweller shops. In fact I saw nothing to equal them in Paris or London, and the fashionables of Montevideo must be half 'gone' on diamonds. Even in Buenos Aires there is not to be seen such diamonds as in the grand jeweller shops in Montevideo.

On last Monday Mr. Oldham, Chevalier of the Order of the Rose, and General Manager of the Montevidean Telegraph Company and of the Cable Co., was elected director of the Union Tramway Company, which is now about being bought up by the Ob as Company. A meeting was called on Tuesday to consider the offer of 1¼ million, but as only 17 shares were represented nothing could be done. On Tuesday evening Mr. Oldham gave a grand dinner party which was followed by a ball; dancing held till midnight.

The Obras Publicas Company last week bought up another tramway company called the tramway del Este, and now this company owns all the trams in Montevideo, save two, which will probably be purchased this week, as the object is to take up all the trams and then make one company in London for all.

Mr. C. O. Barker, Secretary of the B. Aires Great Southern Railway, has had several interviews with the Minister, and I hear is likely to obtain a valuable railway concession from the Government. Mr. Barker seems determined to see the country, as the news in the Mount is that he has got a "tropilla" of horses, and means to ride on horseback to the Brazilian frontier, which for a London man means much.

The English Bank of the River Plate under Mr. McCrindle's management is doing a splendid business, altogether too much for the dark, miserable premises the bank occupies. Mr. McCrindle's office is so dark that he can hardly read

Remataremos al contado por orden del Sr. don Guillermo Makern y por cuenta del famado librero de Londres señor don Bernardo Quaritch, una nueva remesa de libros recientemente llegados de Inglaterra. De 1821 hectareas de campo
En el partido de Pila a tres leguas de la estacion San Pedro F. C. S., conocido por estancia San Emilio sobre el arroyo Zapallar, con poblacion principal, corrales, monte, etc Base de venta 20 ps. hectarea en n/c Alsina 482.

El Martes 25 de Mayo
A las dos p. m.

Venderemos a la mas alta postura y dinero de contado por orden de su propietario.

Una area de campo ubicada en el partido de Pila compuesta de 1821 hectareas, 82 areas y 82 cts. conocido por estancia San Jose sobre el arroyo Zapallar, lindando con los Sres. S. B. Anasagasti Hons, Fotti, E. Solanet, Juan Brown, Jose Elisalde y otros.

Campo muy bueno para ovejas, vacas y agricultura.

La poblacion principal de pared francesa, techos de paja y parte de fierro galvanizado, tiene 5 piezas, 3 de ellos pisos de tabla, cochera, dos cocinas, habitaciones para peones, un galpon techo de paja y piso de tablas, montes, alfalfar, potreros, alambrados, corral para vacas de palo a pique y aduana con puestos.

Dista solo tres leguas de la estacion San Pedro de F. C. del Sud, y de consiguiente es bueno para Centro Agricola.

Creemos inutil recomendar esta pichincha como lo demuestra la infima base fijada para la venta, que es 25 pesos hectarea cuando vale lo menos el doble.

El comprador puede tomar a su cargo la hipoteca de 8000 pesos cedulas F a precio de Bolsa a estilo de plaza.

Propias para un centro agricola en el partido de 25 de Mayo á 6 leguas de la estacion Roque Perez, conocido por Dr. Wright. Base de venta 78, 35 hectareas con una hipoteca de $3,000 pesos en cedulas. En nuestra casa Alsina 582.

El Jueves. 16 de Mayo
A LAS 2 P.M.

Remataremos en la base fijada por cuenta y orden de sus propietarios y liquidacion de sociedad.

La magnifica estancia conocida por don Tomas Wright ubicada en el partido 25 de Mayo, á una legua del Saladó, lindando con la Yerba, compuesta de 4200 hectareas, con casa de material, monte y 7 puestos.

Está casi todo alambrado por los vecinos, faltando solo unas 25 cuadras mas o menos linda con Toma, Hilmorray, Margarita Costa. Maria Garcia y Wright. El ferro-carril del Oeste con su ramal de Navarro al 25 de Mayo cruzara este campo, de manera que para centro agricola es inmejorable, tanto por la calidad de su tierra como por su situacion, quedando solo 28 leguas de la capital.

Siendo la venta por liquidacion y teniendo que venderse se le ha fijado la infima base de 35 pesos por hectarea.

Las condiciones de pago son descontada la hipoteca de $3000 ps. en cedulas que gravitan sobre la propiedad y que puede tomar el comprador á su cargo si le conviene al precio de Bolsa a estilo de plaza $200,000 al contado y el resto á 6 y 12 meses de plazo con 7 o/o de interes de garantia hipotecaria.

Es un brillante negocio sobre el cual llamamos la atencion de la gente de dinero.

Centro Agricola "Castelli"
En la estacion GUERRERO, F.C.S.
Esta ubicado entre las Estaciones
Guerrero y Taillade
Lindando con las dos Estaciones
Esta ya pedida por el Gobierno a la empresa del Ferro-carril del Sud una estacion en este Centro Agricola.

Las tierras que componen este Centro son inmejorables; lo mismo de Castelli. Es necesario verlas para poder apreciarlas y convencerse que son las mas apropiadas para la agricultura, no solo por ser tierras altisimas y vegetales, sino por las facilidades que ofrece para el transporte de sus productos y a este respecto se encuentra en condiciones escepcionales pues sobre estar ubicado entre las estaciones Guerrero y Taillade de la Empresa del Ferra-carril del Sud. Se ha solicitado establecer otra estacion en este centro.

La adquisicion de esta tierra puede hacerse sin desembolso, pues reconocen un gravamen hipotecario de $130 mln hectareas en cedulas de la Serie N cuyo precio de $130 la hectarea será la base para la venta.

En estas condiciones el colono puede continuar con la hipoteca, redimiendola en los años que debe durar.

Estas tierras están acojidas á los beneficios de la ley de centros agricolas cuyas articulos principales transcribimos.

Art. 22—Los propietarios de tierras en los Centros Agricolas gozarán de una rebaja de veintecinco por ciento en los fletes establecidos para el transporte de su produccion en los Ferro-carriles.

Art. 41—Los creditos que el Banco de la Provincia acuerde á los propietarios de Centros agricolas, seran amortizadas con un diez por ciento anual.

Art. 42—Toda escritura de concesion de Tierras que haga el Estado o las empresas en estos Centros se otorgara en papel simple quedando por consecuencia exenta de todo impuesto de ellos por esta causa.

Art. 44—Quedan exentos de todo impuesto y de Contribucion Directa durante el termino de tres años, los compradores de los Centros Agricolas que se formen de acuerdo á la presente ley y en consecuencia no podran ser molestados, por esta causa por autoridad alguna de la Provincia.

Art. 45—Todo concesionario de tierras en los Centros Agricolas, tendran derecho de viajar en los Ferro-carriles de la Provincia dos veces al año, la boleta respectiva que sera intransferible, se otorgara por el Gefe de la Estacion respectiva, previa presentacion de la orden expedida por la oficina de Agricultura.

En estos se venderan varios lotes de Pueblo y quintas sin cédulas y sin base, a la mas alta postura por metro cuadrado.

El remate se efectuara en el mismo centro agricola por los martilleros Adolfo Bullrich y Cia., el dia

Domingo, 19 de Mayo
A las 1 p.m.

Todo comprador abonara el 5 o/o al firmar el boleto.

El Domingo, 12 de Mayo
A la 1 de la tarde

Venderemos por cuenta y orden de la testamentaria de la Sra. Justa S. de Garcia los terrenos arriba mencionados, divididos en lotes al alcance de pobres y ricos, hoy que Villa Mazzini se encuentra a veinte minutos de la plaza de la Victoria, quien no se hace propietario para edificarse en morada, dado los fuertes alquileres que se pagan en la capital.

Atencion pues, empleados, jornaleros, dependientes y en fin toda la gente que vive de su trabajo diario; hacerse propietario de estos terrenos es asegurarle el porvenir á los hijos.

Nos parece inutil recomendarlos, pues una vez que los vean se convenceran de su bondad.

¡Atencion!
EN LOS LIAS
30 de Mayo y 2 de Junio
A LAS 12 DEL DIA

Procederemos a vender en remate publico y en los mismos terrenos, el numero de solares, quintas, y chacras que se dejan espresadas, que constituyen el famoso campo que fue de doña Maria Fanlkes, hoy del Consejo General de Educacion de la Provincia.—Por orden judicial dictada en el juicio sobre cesion de condominio seguido por el Consejo General de Educacion de la Provincia.

Este campo que constituye ejido del pueblo de Brandzen, se reputa—El mejor partido, el mejor del Sud, el mejor de la Provincia.

El que lo conozca, admitirá esto sin reserva; y el que no lo conozca, que se informe y confirmará la aseveracion.

Se encuentra cortado por dos vias ferreas, la del Sud y la de La Plata, se halla trazada otra para el Monte; se proyecta un mercado de frutos, un tramway a Chascomus y se establecera alli la estacion principal de la empresa que ha presentado al superior Gobierno el proyecto de una red de ferro-carriles de la Provincia. Hecho esto Brandzen tendra como ningun partido, cuatro vias ferreas y un tramway. Fijarse bien el comprador sera dueño de dar a su terreno el destino que desee, pues esta operacion no esta sometida a las condiciones con que el Gobierno vende los terrenos de ejido Grandes ventajas—La venta se efectuara: una tercera parte al contado y las dos restantes a plazos de 3, 6, 9 y 12 meses con la garantia hipotecaria del mismo terreno y con el interes de ocho por ciento anual; cuya hipoteca podra chancelarse antes de su vencimiento si los compradores lo pidieren, pudiendo sustituirse por otra de mas largos plazos en los Bancos Hipotecarios de la Provincia o la Nacion.

Observar.—Que el pueblo de Brandzen segun el mapa del Estado Mayor del Ejercito Nacional se encuenta situado a doce leguas y fraccion de kilometros de la Capital Federal, o sea una distancia igual que la ciudad de La Plata. Este campo esta señalado para la agricultura, tambos, pastoreo de invernada y establecimientos industriales. Por lo espuesto puede afirmarse que Brandzen es y sera una situacion industrial y comercial-neute Estrategica. Este es un hecho real y evidente que puede palpar todo el que entienda de negocios. Dr. A. G. Rawson Harris, L. R. C. P., and M. R. C. S., Pembroke, Eng., says: "I am sure that it is destined to be more than a merely fashionable remedy of the hour. I use it in a case of nervous dyspepsia, of long standing, where for years there had been a great deal of irritation of the nervous system. This objectionable symptom was speedily relieved in a way that no other remedy has ever effected."

It is a long lane that has no turning, and it must be a big fall that has no reaction. Taking the National Bank Share speculation as a sample of the latter, it may be computed that there has been a drop in this stock of some 30 points, and strange as it may seem, the opinion of the market is still more or less unanimous that the bottom has not yet been touched at 243.50, perhaps a fallacy as stupendous as when at 275 it was no less generally thought that the shares were even at that rate not cheap but a bargain. However, all these soundings must soon begin to give result. If bottom is not touched at least the speculation is in shoal water, and that must be some consolation to the bulls who have been so unmercifully flayed during the past months. A reaction is bound to set in shortly, and then will come the rebound that will equal if not eclipse the present tremendous collapse.

Business at the first hour was rather dull, except in the sovereign stock, which still, in spite of the stand-from-under-tumble of yesterday, could scarcely make a stand today, closing at 243 for end of month, with sellers. It seems that the whole market is now bearing this stock, banging away thousands of shares and heaping up a "descubierto" that will undoubtedly bring about a stiff reaction before long. In the ring orders to buy at 240 and 241 are simply stupendous. It is calculated that at the present rate of retrogression these rates will soon be reached, and then the turn of the tide is more than probable. "Bona fide" sellers will step in to get their shares back again at such cheap rates; sellers in "descubierto" will hasten to cover their operations, and there will be such a rush to secure at low rates that prices must advance, if not so rapidly, at least no less steadily than they have fallen. There is, however, in spite of everything, no sign of panic, which is a sure indication that the fall is purely speculative, and there is little or no business done for cash. Cedulas were fairly brisk, but the National series are as firm as a rock, whilst the Provincials are suspiciously unstable. Credito Real kept up to 140.50 for end of month and 143 end of June, and Constructors to 131 for cash and 132.50 for end of month, but both are weak-kneed and more likely to decline than to advance. Bolsa Bank Scrip was firm. The City Mortgage Bank Scrip changed hands at par quotations.

The National Bank gave out to-day 145,000 dols. in gold at an average rate of 58.80 per cent premium.

Advices from Montevideo announce that owing to the differences existing between the Italian Bank and the Obras Company with regard to Dr. Reus' affairs, the Company have refused to receive the Bank's notes either on their tramways or in payment of the houses sold in the Reus Barrio. The carriers are about to "strike," owing to new tax imposed by the Corporation. The s.s. Congo, which left on the 8th inst. for Bordeaux, touches at Rio; several parties who had taken passages by her on the strength, as they affirm, of the agent's assurance that she would not touch at Rio, have formulated a solemn protest, which will no doubt receive due consideration.

From all parts of the camp complaint is general on the scarcity of hands to gather the maize, although 60 cents per fanega is offered. Due to the backward state of the harvest from this lack of hands and the broken state of the weather, it is apprehended that much of a magnificent crop will be lost.

The Governor of Salta's message on the opening of the legislative period will open many eyes to the amazing strides with which the interior provinces are pushing their way to the front. In 1884 the revenue of the province was only 99,000 dols; in 1885 it amounted to 143,000, and this year it will reach 1,250,000, a figure all the more astounding when the profits of the bank and the product of the sale of 200 leagues of State lands are not included. The expenditure has been kept down to the level of the estimates, and altogether the message shews a very flattering state of affairs indeed for what was considered a backward province.

The National Bank discounted to the round amount of 3,345,000 dollars in paper yesterday and no gold. Further discounts in paper, it is rumoured, will be made to-morrow.

Discounts in the market are quoted at 9 to 9½ o/o and fairly easy. Exchange is a trifle firmer, but there is no change in rates, sterling being quoted at 47½-¾d. and francs at 4.97½ Paris.

"Multas" were the order of the day at the ring to-day, and several offers were made to pay fines for right to ask for N.B. shares at end of month at 246. We heard of one business done on those terms, 3000 dollars paid for 3000 shares.

Gold to-day ruled more or less stationary, as it was rumoured that the National Bank would give all the gold required at 159 and all amounts under 5000 at 158.

It is a moot point yet whether concessionaires of "centros agricolas" are or are not considered exempt from all taxes from date of concession. The Revenue Office thinks not, as it interprets the law into exempting the chacreros from taxation when they have complied with all the provisions of the law, and it is more than likely that the Minister of Finance, who has been appealed to on the point, will rule the same way.

This fixed price is a relief to the old system of setting forth rates in petitions and running the risk of being refused. The rate in the open market at the close was 159.20. No buyers.

With regard to the Obras Company, a Mount colleague says that the Board has annulled all the arrangements made with contractors for construction of Reus Barrio formulating another basis of valuation much more favorable to the company. And the block 515 has now been finished. The company has now purchased over 10,000 squares on the bank of the River Yi, and alongside the Railway station, and adjoining lands which were sold some time ago at 20 dollars the square. For houses in the Reus Barrio sold at auction, offers of 300 dollars upward for the boleto have been made and refused. Mr. F. Torres has purchased from the Company lands he had previously sold it, losing 6,700 dollars on the transaction.

Business at the second hour was far inferior in volume to that effected in the morning, and the only new phase of affairs was a slightly firmer tone in the sovereign stock, which closed at 243.50 buyers for end of month and at 247.50 for end of June. There was a generally flat tone about the market, however, that pervaded all stocks, and it seems that matters threaten a complete collapse unless something turns up. Constructors are tottering at 130 for cash and Credito Real at 140, whilst the hundred-and-one other stocks are not enquired for and would probably have to be let go at a par quotation in case of holders being compelled to realize. Cedulas are also dull, but the National series keep very buoyant in quotation.

Payments 10 per cent every 3 months, like a Savings Bank.

This is the most important and indispensable Industrial Undertaking of the country, and the one which offers the largest prospect of profit to its shareholders, from the opportunities it possesses of obtaining concessions and purchasing forests, of the richest and strongest woods requiring only the hand of the practical and scientific man and the power of capital to create the means of transport and economical manufacture, safe being sure, remunerative and easy in this Republic, as well as in Uruguay and Europe, in consequence of the natural requirements of Industry and Building. No business man or capitalist should delay subscribing, for his own and his country's sake, freeing us from the enormous annual tax of $12,000,000 now paid by us to foreigners for woods inferior to the Argentine.
